Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is a powerful, invigorating tonic, imparting health and strength in particular to the organs distinctly feminine. The local, womanly health is so intimately related to the general health that when diseases of the delicate womanly organs are cured the whole body gains in health and strength. For weak and sickly women who are "worn-out," "run-down" or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office or schoolroom, who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, and for nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proven a priceless benefit because of its health-restoring and strength-giving powers.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womanly organs. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Cures obstinate cases. "Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of "female weakness," painful periods, irregularities, prolapsus or falling of the pelvic organs, weak back, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration.

Dr. Pierce's medicines are made from harmless but efficient medical roots found growing in our American forests. The Indians knew of the marvelous curative value of some of these roots and imparted that knowledge to some of the friendlier whites, and gradually some of the more progressive physicians came to test and use them, and ever since they have grown in favor by reason of their superior curative virtues and their safe and harmless qualities.

Your druggists sell the "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" and also that famous alterative, blood purifier and stomach tonic, the "GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY." Write to Dr. Pierce about your case. He is an experienced physician and will treat your case as confidential and without charge for correspondence. Address him at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., of which he is chief consulting physician.

DR. BROUWER ACQUITTED.

When the verdict was announced Instantly the courtroom was in an uproar. Men and women cheered and applauded in spite of the rapping for order and the court officers had difficulty in suppressing the noise. Finally when quiet was restored Dr. Brouwer was formally discharged. He was so overcome that he could scarcely speak.

At this point the applause was renewed and women waved their handkerchiefs, while scores of Dr. Brouwer's friends crowded about him and offered their congratulations. When the excitement had died down somewhat Dr. Brouwer shook hands with his counsel and turning to Judge Hendrickson thanked him for the impartiality of his charge of the jury.

Dr. Brouwer then asked permission to address the jury, and when it was granted said:

"I am thankful, very thankful, for the way you have treated me, and I hope that none of you will ever be placed in such a position as I have been.

The doctor then shook hands with each juror. As he turned from the jurymen men, women and children again pressed about the acquitted man, who finally backed up to a wall of the courtroom and grasped each extended hand as the crowd, shouting its congratulations, filed past him. A 14-year-old girl paused in the line long enough to kiss him. Once free of the courtroom crowd, Dr. Brouwer was hurried by his counsel to the street, while another crowd that had been waiting cheered and followed him as he walked rapidly toward his home. Passing the postoffice Dr. Brouwer saw Miss Stella McClenahan and stopped to receive her congratulations. As Dr. Brouwer came within sight of his home his aged mother and his little boys appeared in the doorway. The boys quickly ran into the arms of their father, who, catching them up one on each arm, ascended the steps to the house. As his head reached her level his mother threw her arms around the three.

A moment later Dr. Brouwer turned to the crowd which had remained at his heels throughout the affecting scene and briefly expressed his thanks for the evidence of good will. With a final cheer the crowd dispersed and the family withdrew to the house.

Last night Dr. Brouwer hung out the sign that had been removed from his office door, indicating his intention of staying in town instead of leaving, as he had said he would if public opinion was against him.

DRAWN BATTLE.

Terry McGovern and Young Corbett fought a hard six-round bout at the National Athletic Club in Philadelphia, last night. When the gong announced the close of the battle there was little to choose between the fighters. The fight was one of the bloodiest ever witnessed in Philadelphia.

In the opening round there was not a blow which did any damage. McGovern, profiting by his two previous battles with Corbett, took no chances, and simply danced around the ring or rushed to a clinch. At the opening of the second round Corbett rushed and caught McGovern with a terrific right on the chin, which forced the latter to take the count of nine.

When McGovern got to his feet he rushed to a clinch, and in so doing he butted Corbett over the left eye, opening a gash from which the blood flowed in a stream. From this round to the finish, the fighters were covered with blood from head to foot.

Matters grew worse in the third round. After Corbett had missed three right swings for McGovern's jaw, he finally landed a hard right over Terry's eye, opening a deep gash. Both men were well winded when the gong sounded.

The fouth round was decidedly in McGovern's favor. Time and again he would counter on the wind as Corbett rushed in and an occasional jab to the face opening the damaged eye, the blood from which partly blinded Corbett.

The fifth ard sixth rounds were about even, but there was never a second that the men were idle. If was rush, clinch, and swing from gong to gong, each fighter using his best endeavor to get in a knock-out blow. At the pace the men were going it is doubtful if either could have lasted two more rounds. McGovern was weakened by Corbett's blows, and the latter, who carried at least twenty pounds too much weight, was very weary from his own exertions.

It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Hemmorhages, Chronic Coughs, Settled Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs. THURSDAY EVENING, OCT. 18, 1906.

THE government bureau of statistics, which colors all its figures to prove the benefits of the tariff tax, has been compelled to acknowledge that a bad trade situation exists between this country and the South American republics. The review of the commercial relations with those countries shows that ships bring products north to the United States and then carry cargoes from here to European nations and return with foreign goods for South American countries. This shows that while we buy coffee, hides, wool, rubber, sugar and other of their products we require, they in return buy but little of us, but prefer to deal with England and Germany for manufactured goods, with which they have reciprocal trade relations which this country refuses to consider, under the present high protection system. Of course, it would never do for the bureau of statistics to admit that our refusal to reduce our tariff duties is the cause of lack of trade, so it assumes that by establishing direct shipping lines to South American ports our exports to those countries would be materially increased. The promotion of this policy kills two birds with one stone; it supports the protective tariff and the trusts and secretly is working for a subsidy to the steamship trust. It is the familiar argument so common with the protectionists and ship-subsidists and the subsidized organ of the Protective Tariff League, which many western states are repudiating When the tariff is revised, so that the monopoly the trusts and combines now enjoy is overthrown by competition, we shall not only be able to sell to those countries we are compelled to purchase of, but will be able to compete with any foreign nation in the markets of the world with such of our goods as we can produce cheaper than other countries can. Our farmers and other producers will then be able to buy in the cheapest market and sell in the best market the world affords. As it is now the cost of living has been so increased by the trusts through the monopoly fostering tariff, that we can neither sell our manufactures cheap at home, nor compete abroad unless the trusts forego their enormous profits to do so. But when it comes to selling our surplus agricultural products, such as wheat, corn and cotton, they must be sold at the price in the world's market irrespective of what it costs to raise them and that price fixes approximately the price for the whole crop. And yet many farmers and others vote for congressmen who support ship-subsidy and the tariff system which plunders them.

IT HAS been learned that some of the "hand-carved mahogany" in the new $18,000,000 Pennsylvania State capitol is painted putty. A wood carver who worked on various parts of the capitol job went through the building yesterday and pointed out many pieces of ornamental work which he declared are moulded of "composition" and then glued and nailed to a mahogany background. The excessive cost of furnishing the new capitol has caused a scandal in Pennsylvania but Gov. Pennypacker when questioned concerning the matter said:

What if we did spend $9,000,000 in decorating and furnishing a $4,000,000 building?" It is a large sum, but this is a wealthy State. We did not aim at economy, but at the acme of beauty, and we have achieved it. The people of Pennsylvania are entitled to the best, and they have it. The capitol is the most magnificent public building in the world. In every detail the costliest materials have been used. Even at $13,000,000, the taxpayers have received their money's worth.

Such are the replies of those who defend "boodlers" if they are not "boodlers" themselves.

THE MOBILE REGISTER will says that the element of danger to the peace of every southern community is the vagrant class, composed for the most part of negroes. At a time when there is actual need of laborers, it will be found that hundreds of able-bodied men are idling their days, asleep in the houses that are paid for by their wives or female associates, and their nights in the groggeries. When asked to work they reply: "No; I dont want to work." Being idle, their minds become the workshop of the devil, and hence come the burglaries, robberies, affrays, and, worse, the assaults on women. In Lynchburg the authorities during the past week arrested a large number of idle negroes and put them to work and this has had a most wholesome effect in that community. Under the new law in Virginia idlers and those who have no visible means of support can be declared vagrants and put to work on the roads and this law should be rigidly enforced. Trifling men who can work but who wont work should be made to work. These are no times for dlers.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

The third term bee has been buzzing about the White House at a lively rate the past week and the President has not been seriously annoyed. Among those who have tried to show the President that it is his duty to be stung is Mr. Grosvenor, Representative from Ohio, who told the President that this was the easiest job of figuring that he had ever tackled. The President would simply have to consent to a renomination. If he didn't, the grand old party would rope and tie him and make him take it. The President merely smiled. Then along came Senator Elkins, of West Virginia, who remarked that the most significant thing in current politics was the increasing demand on the part of the people generally that the President stand for another term. Again the President smiled. Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, chimed in with his eloquent voice. Closely in touch with the sentiment of the middle West, he told the President that there was no way out of it. The same familiar smile. "After you, Mr. President," is said to have been the gist of Speaker Cannon's remarks, who himself has been bothered by the bee. All of which leads to but one conclusion—that there is on foot a well-defined movement in the ranks of the President's party to induce him to alter the decision that he made at the death bed of his predecessor. His callers all preach from the one text—"Conditions have changed." They argue that the President is no longer bound by his former declaration, any more than he is by the precedent that no President should serve three terms. They have raised the bugaboo of Bryanism, Hearstism, socialism, government ownership, financial panic, and all the other frightful things. To none of his visitors has the President given the slightest intimation that he is prepared to change his mind. It is believed however, that the leaven is working, that if the President can be convinced that he is the only man who can surely lead his party to victory in 1908, he will give consent to a re-nomination. Much may depend upon the outcome of the election in New York State. The oft-repeated prediction that the next governor of New York will be one of the candidates for the presidency has been given some thought at the White House. If it is Hearst then look out for an early statement that the President has yielded to the popular clamor, and has finally decided to cast aside his expected preference for a return to private life for the good of the party and the country. To more than one of his friends the President has stated that he would regard the election of Hearst as governor of New York a public calamity second only to his possible election as president of the United States. It is no secret that Theodore Roosevelt has been itching to jump into the New York campaign. Were it not for the traditions that hedge themselves about the presidential office, he would like nothing better than to take the stump in person against the New York editor. Should the President's political lieutenants in that State bring the word to him at the last moment that Hughes is really in serious danger of defeat, it is altogether possible that he would disregard precedents, dignity and traditions and take the first train for New York. The suggestion has been made that he could with propriety embody his views about Hearst in an open letter to Hughes for the enlightenment of men behind the ballots and he may do this. The interest the President has taken in the New York situation is manifest from the assignments he has handed out to his cabinet members. The three political heavyweights, Root, Taft and Moody are all to make speeches in the State. Cortelyou is doing the gum shoe work. If they cannot deliver the goods, then the President may be expected to take his pen in hand and indite a few pertinent observations unless he should decide to deliver them by word of mouth.

The Supreme Court mandate in the case of Ex-Senator Joseph R. Burton, of Kansas, was today mailed by the Department of Justice to the District Attorney for the Eastern District of Missouri. If that court is in session, it is likely that Burton will be called before it early next week and given in charge of the sheriff to serve his sentence of six months.

Secretary of War Taft announced this afternoon that it was the intention to assign Brig. Gen. Funston, who has just returned from Cuba, to command the southwestern division of the army with headquarters removed from Oklahoma City to St. Louis. The headquarters of the northern division, now located at St. Louis will be removed to Chicago, with Maj. Gen. A. W. Greely in command.

At the request of his government the Chinese Minister, Sir Chentung Liang-Cheng, has withdrawn his resignation which was offered as the death of his mother. Usually under such circumstances Chinese officials are compelled to go into complete retirement for a period of three years. In this case a special imperial decree has been issued authorizing Sir Chentung to remain at his post and resume his duties after one hundred days. The attacks of the legation will conduct its business during that time. The Chinese Minister will not go into society this winter and he will be compelled to decline all invitations to visit other cities in his public capacity. Mrs. Liang was seventy years old and died at Canton, China, after a long illness.

"We will not leave Cuba to the Cubans until absolute tranquility has been restored throughout the island. Just how soon this will be I cannot say, but it will certainly not come until after the elections." Secretary Taft made this significant remark this morning at the War Department after he had been in conference with the President and explained to him in detail the present political situation in Cuba and the strenuous time he and his colleagues of the peace commission had experienced in bringing about peace in Cuba. Secretary Taft said that when the Americans get through with Cuba the conditions will be such that there will be no possibility of further insurrection or political disturbances which threatened the life of the republic. The secretary was unwilling to predict when the elections would be held in Cuba, the inference drawn from his remarks on the subject was that it would be many, many months before conditions would be ripe in Cuba for fair elections to be held under the military supervision of this country. The Secretary stated that all the marines stationed in Cuba would soon be withdrawn and that Gen. Bell would not remain there for more than a few weeks longer.

Unless the pressure of business incident to his departure for Panama interferes with it, the President will make an endeavor to attend the initial rendition on the stage of Upton Sinclair's Packingtown novel "The Jungle," to be given in Trenton, N. J., on November 5. The first performance will be given on November 5, the evening before election day. As the President intends to go to Oyster Bay to vote, he could arrange to stop off in Trenton to see his friend, Sinclair, as the star performer in the interpretation of the novel which upturned the packing industry.

Capt. George E. Tyson, of Arctic exploration fame, died this morning at his home in this city. He was with the Hall expedition sent out by the government in 1871 in search of the pole.

For an hour this morning Secretary of War Taft went over the situation with President Roosevelt. Shortly after the conference began Mr. Bacon, the other Cuban commissioner who accompanied Secretary Taft to Cuba, reached the White House and was admitted to the conference room. When the two commissioners left the White House, they were reluctant to tell what had been said.

The President has definitely decided to visit Panama during November to inspect the work being done on the canal project. He has reached the conclusion that the situation in Cuba has reached the stage where he can safely trust affairs to the supervision of Secretary of War Taft. It is expected that the President will soon announce the exact date upon which he will leave. The original plans were to leave immediately after the November election and it is believed that the President will adhere to this plan.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson announced this morning that the rules and regulations for manufacturers under the pure food law will not be given out until next week, possibly Monday. Nearly 8,000 manufacturers in the United States have asked for copies of the rules as soon as they are ready.

The demand for subsidiary silver coinage is so extraordinary that the government is being fairly put to its wits ends to relieve the pressing situation. Starting over a month ago with weekly purchases of two hundred thousand ounces and less the director of the Mint is now buying silver bullion three times a week, and at a stedily increasing rate. The price has already advanced from 69.21 cents on October 3 to 70 29 yesterday. In 1902 the price paid by the Treasury was 51.11.

The democratic and republican campaign committees are at sea as to the result of the congressional contest this year. The republicans, because they are always optimistic and because they have now a large majority to go on, are confident that they will retain control of the House though by a greatly reduced majority. The democrats claim they are going to capture the House, because reports from all quarters indicate antagonism to the tariff stand-pat policy.

The Penn Bridge Company and the Charles McCaul Company were defendants in the police court in Washington, yesterday, on charges of having violated the eight hour law in construction work for the government. The McCaul Company entered a plea of guilty and a fine of $50 was imposed and paid. Three charges against the Penn Bridge Company were tried before a jury and, upon a verdict of guilty, a fine of $500 was imposed in each case. Notice of an appeal was given.

A Blood Thirsty King.

The mail advices which reached Marseilles, France, yesterday from Indo-China brought another more revolting story of the doings of King Thanh-Thai, of Anam, showing that he went to the extent of cannibalism. After killing one of his wives, he caused the body to be cooked and served up for dinner, forcing his entourage to eat it under pain of death.

Some of the king's wives were bound and burned with boiling oil and subjected to other cruelty, while naked women were thrown into the cages of wild beasts, where they were devoured before the eyes of the king.

Finally, the French authorities stepped in and made a prisoner of Thanh-Thai, who has been adjudged insane by Dr. Dumas, of the French colonial staff. The "royal guard" has been disbanded, the palace has been placed under the protection of 150 native soldiers, and the terror-stricken inmates of the palace have been rescued from further suffering.

The majority of the latter were women who bore the marks of revolting tortures. Some of them were terribly mutilated, their faces being slashed and tongues cut out, while others had been suspended by pinchers attached to the fleshy parts of their legs to increase their agonies.

Burning of a Town.

The town of Seneca, S. C., was visited by fire early yesterday and property worth $75,000 was destroyed.

The fire originated in the Oconee Inn, a new brick hotel, which was totally destroyed. The Palmetto Hotel, recently completed, together with the stores of Hunt & Harper, Luther Moore, and Stribling's Pharmacy were burned.

Both hotels were well filled with guests, and there were several narrow escapes. The doors of several rooms were forced in order to rescue the occupants.

Rumors were circulated that the fire was the result of incendiarism and was started by negroes in revenge for the destruction of a negro college by dynamite at that place on Sunday night last. Investigation, however, showed that there was little on which to base the rumors. The negro population of the town did everything in its power to stay the progress of the flames. As the town had no fire apparatus it was necessary to use dynamite to check the fire.

Today's Telegraphic News

Cyclone at Havana.

New York, Oct. 18.—Secretary West has reported that a cyclone struck Havana last night.

No details have been received, but it is rumored that great damage was done. Cable communication with Cuba has been interrupted. A message which came through before the cable went out stated that a heavy rain storm, accompanied by a high wind, occurred in Havana yesterday afternoon.

An unconfirmed rumor has it that great damage has been caused in Havana among the Americans troops.

Miami, Fla., Oct. 18.—Cuba has been swept by a hurricane, and it is feared that great damage will be done along the Atlantic coast as far north as South Carolina. Weather bureau bulletins have been issued from Washington giving notice of the storm and warning vessels that navigation will be dangerous for 48 hours.

Details of the devastation believed to have been wrought in Cuba cannot be obtained.

Just before the cable went out last night a message from the operator stated that a hurricane was raging there and that many lives would undoubtedly be lost. Great damage was reported even then. Since then not a message has come through.

Press dispatches early last night stated that a severe wind storm, accompanied by heavy rains, was in progress. Later messages all spoke of the increasing advance of the storm until later word that a veritable hurricane had struck the island.

Among the severe sufferers were the United States soldiers in camp at Camp Columbia just outside of Havana. The advices stated they had been forced to abandon their positions.

Before the cable was lost the Havana operator announced that the land wires to the interior were down in all directions. The breaking of communications between Havana and the west is believed to have been due to the storm.

Warning of a storm moving up the Atlantic coast was given today from the weather bureau. It is supposed to be the same hurricane which caused the damage in Cuba. The first bulletin, issued at 10 o'clock, stated that a tropical distubance of small diameter but great intensity was raging off the southeast coast of Florida. Warning was given that high winds could be expected for a considerable distance off the shore.

An hour later the second bulletin, a hurricane warning, was issued stating that the storm extended from Miami to Charleston, S. C., and was moving northeast from the Florida channel. All masters of vessels are warned that navigation will be dangerous.

Miami, Oct. 18.—The Florida peninsula has been added to the storm zone and apparently will suffer greatly. Communication with Key West was lost by the telegraph companies shortly after 10 o'clock. A gale has been blowing there for some time before communication was lost. Rain fell freely during the night and the wind at times attained a velocity of 48 miles an hour.

Jacksonville is now the point further South which is cut from wire communication. A fierce gale is blowing here and as the barometer is falling fears are entertained that the storm may extend to Miami.

Soap Trust.

London, Oct. 18.—Cleaniness may be next to godliness, but the soap manufacturers of Great Britain and the United States are preparing to make the people who try to conform to this cardinal virtue pay heavily for the privilege.

Recently a combination of several English soapmakers was formed and this has greatly agitated many of the newspapers. According to the Graphic the real purpose of combination is of far greater scope than has been imagined. This combination, it alleges, will be followed soon by an alliance between the English manufacturers and an American soap trust. French, German and Belgian soapmakers will be invited to join this combination.

J. Pierpont Morgan is mentioned as being in charge of the American end of the deal. American manufacturers, it is said, have been amalgamated under his management, Proctor and Gamble, of Cincinnati, having been used as the wedge.

Members of the new English combination deny a trust is contemplated, saying their organization is merely a trade understanding to economize production and increase wages, and there will be no increase to consumers. Despite this denial, however, one firm has given notice to retailers that the increase in price of raw materials will necessitate reducing the bar of soap formerly sold for a threepenny bit from a pound to fifteen ounces in weight.

The capitalization of the combine is placed at $75,000,000.

The Sunken Submarine.

Paris, Oct. 18.—Hope is today held by out the ministry of marine that some of the men entombed in the submarine Lutin, which went down off Bizerta, Tunis, yesterday, may yet be rescued, based upon an official report just received from Admiral Bellue, who is directing the salvage operations.

This dispatch was dated 10.45 o'clock at Bizerta and reads:

"Have at this instant, in dragging, caught the hull of the Lutin at a depth of 118 feet. Divers have ascertained that she is lying flat on the bottom."

An attache from the ministry of marine, in commenting on the dispatch which has somewhat removed the pessimism of yesterday, said:

"The fact that the Lutin is lying flat on the bottom and no mention is made of her being damaged proves that hope for the men inside still exists, since our fears were based on the belief of experts that her hull would be unable to withstand the pressure of the water at that depth and that she would be crushed like a shell."

More powerful wrecking vessels than those first sent out have now reached the spot where the Lutin is buried, and it is belived they will be able to raise her soon. Weather conditions today are also more favorable for the wreckers.

Paris, Oct. 18.—A later dispatch from Bizerta contained the news that the Lutin has turned on her side. This is regarded as an exceedingly bad indication as it indicated she has become waterlogged.

Two yeggmen armed with revolvers robbed the postoffice at Dorothy and Millmay, Atlantic county, N. J., early this morning. They were arrested at the Kaighens Point ferry house. Their haul consisted of $50 in not s and coin amounting to $5.84. This was found in a bag.

Policyholders Voting.

New York, Oct. 18.—From today until December 18, when the polls close, voting on whether Wall street cliques or the policyholders shall control the $900,000,000 of assets of the Mutual and New York Life Insurance companies will continue. There are 650,000 policyholders in the Mutual and about 875,000 in the New York Life. It is, of course, impossible to tell what percentage of the total will vote, but today's indications are that it will be large.

There are three tickets in the field in the Mutual. They are the ticket nominated by the present administration; that nominated by the International Policyholders Association and the Mutual Life Policyholders Association; and the fusion ticket nominated by the Mutual's agents as a protest to the Peabody management and its attempt to re elect the McCurdy old guard.

There are two tickets in the field in the New York Life. They are the tickets of the administration and the International Policyholders Association.

The ballots will be received by mail at the offices of the two companies and carefully guarded by employes of the insurance department.

Sarrien to Resign.

Paris, Oct. 18.—The resignation of Premier Sarrien after the cabinet council called for tomorrow, is regarded in political circles here as certain to come. Ill-health is said to have determined him to retire. He has been credited for some time with a desire to retire. The rumors which have been started afresh that he will give up his position, therefore, are readily believed.

Former Premier Combes is an active candidate to succeed M. Sarrien in case of the latter's retirement. M. Clemenceau, Minister of the Interior, is picked by most of the politicians, however, as the probable next Premier.

In official circles it is reported that if Sarrien retires, M. Bourgiers, minister of foreign affaires, will also resign. In this event it is believed that Pinchon, the French resident general in Tunis, will be made foreign minister.

Paris, Oct. 18.—Official confirmation was given of the report that M. Sarrien, the Premier, is to leave the cabinet. He has resigned, but it does not take effect tomorrow.

Russian Affairs.

Kieff, Russia, Oct. 18.—Anti-rural districts are having their inning now in the congress of Russian reactionaries being held in this city. The purpose of this organization is to uphold the old autocracy and combat the forces of revolution in every way possible. Plans will be outlined at the present congress for best carrying out its program of opposition to their revolutionary movement. Just how serious is the oppositions to the reactionaries to any concessions being granted the people which would tend to overthrow the ancient order of things in Russia is shown by the displeasure with which a communication from Premier Stolypin, in which he speaks of reforms, was received. The premier in his message expressed the hope that order will be restored in Russia and the proposed reforms carried out successfully. Reactionaries openly declared that any attempt at reform was a blow to autocracy and religion.

Married Men Better Kisses.

Chicago, Oct. 18—Does a married man know how to kiss better than a single man? Can you tell a married man by the way he kisses? These two questions were answered today by Mrs. Katheryn Doelle, the pretty 32-year-old widow of North Central avenue, who is suing Frank E. Dooling, a Springfield potitician, for $800, which she claims she lent him, and for kisses which she confesses blushingly, she gave him outright. "Few single men know how to kiss," declared the pretty widow. "I should have known Mr. Dooling was married by the way he kissed me. Married men know how to kiss better than single men. Their kisses are longer and more heartfelt."

All Crazy.

Chicago, Oct. 18 —Eighty-five per cent. of the people of Chicago are insane, according to Dr. Adolf G. Vegeler. The other 15 per cent. are on the verge of mental breakdown, says Dr. T. B. Wiggen. "How can we expect improvements of any kind from politicians who build bonfires with their neighbors' gates, doors, garbage boxes, and even window shades?" asks Dr. Wiggin.

"Our Aldermen are like savages and win ther elections by the noisiest methods imaginable. We need other leaders in the Council, and when we get them neurasthenia will be a thing of the past," says Dr. Vegeler.

Bishop Consecrated.

Portland, Me., Oct. 18.—With impressive service, Rev. Louis S. Walsh was consecrated bishop of the diocese of Portland today. The consecration, which took place in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, was witnessed by Roman Catholic churchmen from all over New England and neighboring States. The sermon was preached by Rev. Philip R. McDevitt, of Philadelphia.

Advisory Board Resigns.

Philadelphia, Oct. 18.—To add to the muddle in which Mayor Weaver has dived, his entire advisory board resigned this afternoon. While the members saw that everything was friendly, it is generally understood that the Mayor and the members of the board clashed over politics and the Mayor, as he has often done before, became angry and requested the board to resign.

Richard Croker's Visit.

Sandyford, Ireland, Oct. 17 —Richard Croker's contemplated visit to New York will not be made until about Christmas time, if he goes at all. There is no political significance, he says, in his return to the United States. His purpose is merely to see old friends and he will remain only a short time.

Territorial Socialists.

Boston, Oct. 18.—The first national convention of the socialist's territorialist organization, an outgrowth of the Hebrew Zionist movement, convened here today. On Sunday the convention will close in a mass meeting in Faneuil Hall followed by a concert in Paine Memorial Hall.

Charged With Attempted Murder.

Cumberland, Oct. 18 —Charged with attempting to murder Otis Abernathy that he might marry the latter's sister, Solomon Dayton, a young inventor, was placed on trial here today. Both young men are members of prominent families. Dayton, it is alleged, asked Miss Abernathy to marry him and she refused, declaring that she would not marry while her brother lived. Then, it is charged, Dayton attempted to crush Abernathy's skull with a hammer one night so that he would be out of the way and the marriage take place.

Destructive Fire.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 18 —Fire which caused a loss estimated from $25,000 to $50,000 occurred here late last night. The six story building of the Prowell Hardware Company was destroyed and the office building of J. L. Chalifour, of Lenox, Mass., badly damaged. A defective wire is supposed to have caused the fire. Two firemen were hurt by falling walls.

Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Boston, Oct. 18.—The first session of the World's Convention of the Woman's Temperance Union was called to order in Tremont Temple today by vice president at large, Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens. Previous to this there was an hour's prayer service in the Park Street Church, conducted by Miss Elizabeth W. Greenwood. The 500 delegates were welcomed by Gov. Guild and Mayor Fitzgerald, of Boston, after which the secretary read a message from Lady Henry Somerset, of England, the world president. The report of the Treasurer, Miss Mary E. Sanderson, for the year ending May 31, 1906, showed net receipts of $4,585, disbursements of $3,843 and a balance on hand of $2,378.

Bankers' Association.

St. Louis, Oct. 18.—Currency reform was the watchword in the second day's convention of the American Banke s' Association today. Many delegates came prepared to argue the finance question and the convention—almost to a man—favored the adoption of some plan that would provide a more elastic monetary system for the country. It is not known in what manner the delegates will agree upon to dispose of the financial reform movement, but it is thought likely that decisive action will be taken today.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 18.—Trading on the stock exchange all through the first hour was without feature. The only stock in which there was any movement worth noting was in Amalgamated, which ranged from 114 to 116½. All kinds of guesses were made as to the action of the directors on the dividend, but it was impossible to obtain any information from the directors as to what their action would be. The rest of the market to a great extent was influenced by the uncertainty over the Amalgamated dividend, but traders generally took the bear side. Bonds quiet and firm.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Two men were killed and a third probably fatally injured by the collapse of the stone arch bridge over Linesville Creek, Pa., today. The men were employed with several others in tearing down the structure.

Arthur Fize, aged 23, had both legs cut off by a Pennsylvania Railroad train at Newark, N. J., today. He was found unconscious near Hamilton street. He was removed to St. Michael's Hospital where it was said he would probably die.

The customary quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent, and an extra dividend of half per cent. was today declared by Amalagamated Copper in New York. The prevous extra disbursement was ½ of one per cent. and declaration today is at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum.

The body will lie in state in St. Paul's Church, Richmond, from its arrival Friday morning until the hour for the funeral.

New York, Oct. 18.—The remains of Mrs. Jefferson Davis accompanied by members of the family, and in charge of Major Edward Owen, commander of the Confederate Veteran Camp of New York, will be taken to Richmond, Va., tonight, leaving at 9:30 o'clock.

At Richmond preparations have been made for a military funeral attending the burial of Mrs. Davis in the Davis mausoleum at Hollywood. The commander-in-chief United Confederate Veterans will be chief marshal in charge of the funeral, and with him as an executive staff will be all the living war governors of the Confederate States and several generals of the confederacy. The Governor of Virginia today issued a proclamation closing all State offices tomorrow afternoon and ordering flags at half mast.

A Dead Reckoning.

Some ask why this great change in the relations between the whites and the blacks, and the answer seems to be that the blacks have changed and the whites as well—the old slaves and even their children are gone and the slave owners are nearly all dead. The old-time feeling of reciprocity between the races is dead, too.—[Mobile Register.

Confederate Veterans.

A called meeting of the R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, was held at their hall last night to take action on the death of Mrs. Jefferson Davis, Comrades Edgar Warfield, G. Wm. Ramsey and W. W. Sherwood were appointed a committee to prepare resolutions of respect to her memory and they reported the following:

Resolved, that the camp has learned with profound sorrow of the death of Mrs. Jefferson Davis, widow of the only president of the Confederate States of America, and desire to place upon record this tribute of respect to her memory, therefore,

Resolved, that in the judgment of this camp the veterans of the Confederate armies have lost a true and devoted friend, one who did not scruple to subordinate her own pecuniary interest to their welfare, as evidenced by her generous action in regard to Beauvoir; that the memory of the lost cause of the South has lost a firm defender and one ever ready to do battle for the truth of history.

Resolved, that the heartfelt sympathy of the camp is tendered her daughter, Mrs. J. Addison Hayes, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to her.

Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the camp.

A resolution was adopted requesting the mayor of the city to have the city bells tolled while the funeral train passes through Alexandria.

At a special meeting of the Seventeenth Virginia Regiment Chapter, U D. C., held yesterday evening, the following resolufions were adopted:

Whereas Almighty God in his inscrutable wisdom has removed from earth all that is mortal of Mrs. Jefferson Davis the illustrious widow of our great and good President of the Confederate States of America.

Resolved, that the members of the Seventeenth Virginia Regiment Chapter, U. D. C., express their sincere and profound regret in this our Southlands day of sorrow.

Resolved, that our sympathy is extended to the surviving members of Mrs. Davis's family.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Chapter and that a copy be sent to the family of Mrs. Davis.

At the meeting of Mary Custis Lee Chapter, U. D. C., held yesterday evening, the chapter in addition to passing suitable resolutions in respect to the death of Mrs. Davis, sent a telegram of condolence to Mrs. Hayes, daughter of Mrs. Davis, and decided to send a representative of the chapter to Richmond to attend the funeral. Miss Mary Lee Lloyd was named as the representative.

It was intended to toll the bells of this city as the train bearing the remains of Mrs. Davis passed through Alexandria, but it having been learned today that the train would pass about 4 o'clock tomorrow morning, it is probable that the bells will not be tolled.

The Machinists' Strike.

Negotiations between the striking machinists of the Southern Railway and the officials of the company were resumed yesterday in Washington for the first time since the walk-out ten days ago. A committee of the strikers and President O'Connell, of the International Association of Machinists, had an informal conference with General Manager Spencer, of the Southern, in which differences were generally discussed, but no direct understanding was reached.

Mr. O'Connell announced at the conclusion of the conference that it would be resumed today, when something definite probably will result. As matters now stand, the machinists demand an annual increase in there aggregate pay rolls of approximately $50,000, which means an increase of 2½ cents an hour. The Southern offered, before the strike, a graduated scale that would increase the machinists' pay roll by about $15,000 a year. Southern Railway officials say enough men remained at work in the shops to make repairs upon rolling stock so far found necessary. At the same time, it is said, all construction work has been stooped.

It is reported that the railway company is considering the advisabilty of practically closing the machine shops at this city, and keep only a corporal's guard of workmen to make temporary or urgent repairs to engines.

The Robbins Shows.

From the imperial days of ancient Rome to those of costly and curious radium is a far cry, and yet, in their "Tribunal of Nations," the Frank A. Robbins Co., with itsnew great feature shows, seems to have covered the intervening centuries after a fashion calculated to most brilliantly and impressively appeal to the public eye. The feature named comprises an heroic historical pageant in which the most famous epochs are designated by representatives of their greatest rulers and their courts and martial staffs, disposed in accurately and royally robed tableaux on gorgeous floats, drawn by splendidly caparisoned blue-ribboned thoroughbreds. Here is an eye-feast of impressive individuality and a stimulant to historical inquiry of great benefit to the young. This and the many other feature novelties and animal and arenic attractions of the exhibition named will be here on next Saturday. A street parade will be given at 12 o'clock.

But One Watchman on Duty

There is now no night watchman at the intersection of King and Henry streets. Heretofore when trains have passed over the Henry street track two men performed duty at that intersection, one during the day and one at night. But one watchman is now on duty and he remains at his post from 7 o'clock in the morning until 9 at night. Most of the trains pass over Henry street after dark.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

John Crump and Sarah Robinson, both colored, arrested by Officer Smith charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.

Celia Keys, colored, arrested by Officers Smith, Bettis and Sherwood, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was sent to the work house for 30 days.

Oscar Rose, colored, arrested by Officer Bettis and Nicholson charged with carrying concealed weapons, was fined $50.

Antonio Baker, colored, arrested by Officer Smith charged with using abusive language, was dismissed.

Fought with Knives.

John Crump and Sarah Robinson, both colored, were brought before the Police Court this morning charged with cutting each other with knives. They had been arrested by Officer Smith. The affray took place in "Petersburg," the northeastern section of the city. According to the woman's story, the cause of the trouble was akin to incidents often occurring in the Whitechapel section of London. Crump, she alleged, drew a knife and cut her. The man in his statement said the woman accosted him and during a colloquy that followed she drew a knife and slashed him, the blade passing through the sleeve of the shirt on his left arm and grazing the skin. He exhibited the sleeve in corroboration of his assertion. Justice Caton fined them $5 each for disorderly conduct.

Fined Fifty Dollars.

Among the cases before the Police Court this morning was that of a negro named Oscar Rose, who had been arrested by Officers Bettis and Nicholson charged with shooting at James Pendleton, colored. The trouble occurred near Fishtown in the vicinity of a cookshop conducted by a colored woman. When the officers went after Rose he endeavored to draw his pistol from a holster, but Officer Nicholson having in the meantime placed his pistol in front of his face the negro kept his weapon in its place. Justice Caton fined Rose $50. The witnesses in the case were two negroes who gave their names as "Chicken" and ""Snow Ball." In another case before the court a darkey, who gave his name as "Stump," was the material witness.

Will Accept.

Mr. Wm. Albert Smoot, president of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce, today received a telegram from Mr. J. T. Preston, at High Point, N. C., stating that he would accept the position of secretary to the chamber to which he was recently elected and that he would assume the duties of his office on November 1st. Mr. Preston's many friends in this city will be glad to learn of his decision. For several years he was the Alexandria agent of the Southern Railway, in which position he showed himself to be a capable and efficient business man, and he made a host of friends while in this city.

Police Commissioners.

Only routine business was transacted at the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners held in the mayor's office last night. It had been expected that action would be taken in reference to the rules governing the police force, but a report from the committee charged with formulating a new set of regulations was not received. Mayor Paff was absent, he having gone to Richmond on business. The name of Thos. N. Carter, special policeman at the Opera House, was presented to the board for confirmation. The nomination will be confirmed at a called meeting to be held shortly.

Double Tracks Nearly Completed

President Wm. Josiah Leake, of the R., F. & P. and Washington-Southern Railways, says the "slide" at the new fill at Neabsco Creek, between Quantico and this city has at last ceased. This fill has given the railroad all manner of trouble, and perhaps a million yards of earth has been dumped only to disappear in the marsh on each side of the fill. There now remains but one bad place on the road, the new fill at Talbotts, above Franconia. The entire new double track will be in operation within six months.

Engineer and Fireman Scalded.

By the bursting of a boiler flue in the engine drawing the second section of train No. 37 on the Southern Railway, Engineer William A. Craddock and Fireman W. Stuart Wood, both of this city, were painfully scalded by escaping steam about 12 o'clock last night, when the train was near Clifton station. The injured men were brought to their homes in this city where they received medical attention. Engineer Craddock lives on south Patrick street and Fireman Wood at 709 Wolfe street.

Printers Furloughed.

About 400 printers, or one-sixth of the entire force employed in the Government Printing Office, were furloughed yesterday for one day on account of the scarcity of work. It is understood this method will be pursued by the Public Printer until work justifies full time. The introduction of machines is already having its effect. This season of the year is usually the busiest with the big print shop.

The Weather.

The weather continued rainy throughout last night with a cool northeast wind. Similar conditions have prevailed today. The northeast winds have caused high tides in the river. The water this morning spread some distance over King street, between Union and the Strand. The tide also spread over the Strand at Prince street.

Carnegie Awards.

Sixteen more awards of funds or medals were made yesterday in Pittsburg, Pa., by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission to individuals that have saved lives and whose deeds of heroism have been brought to the attention of the commission. With yesterday's awards the total up to date is 47, and it was announced that the delivery of the medals which have been in course of preparation would begin at once.

The commission yesterday had an intricate case of previous award before it. About a year ago Mrs Sadie Lewis Crabbe lost her life in rescuing a negro from drowning near Heathsville, Va. She left a husband and four children, and, at a previous meeting, the commission awarded a silver medal to the husband and set aside $1,000 to purchase a farm for the children. Yesterday the attention of the commission was called to the fact that the husband had remarried, and, to comply with the terms of Mr. Carnegie maintaining the commission, the amount of money was increased to $2,000, which will be forwarded to a Baltimore trust company.

Anatomy of an Oyster.

To discover the heart of an oyster the fold of flesh which oystermen call the "mantle" must be removed. This is fatal to the oyster, of course, but in the interest of science and for the benefit of the "curious" it is occasionally done. When the mantle has been removed the heart, shaped like a crescent or horned moon, is laid to the view. The oyster's heart is made up of two parts, just like that of a human being, one of which receives the blood from the gills, and the other drives it out through the arteries. The liver is found in the immediate vicinity of the heart and stomach and is a queer shaped little organ, which is supposed to perform all the functions of a blood filter. Every oyster has a mouth, a heart, a liver, a stomach and other necessary internal organs, including a set of cunningly devised intestines. The mouth is at the small end of the oyster's body, near the hinge of the shell. It is oval in shape, and, though not readily discovered by an unpracticed eye, it may be easily located by gently pushing a blunt bodkin or similar instrument along the folds of the surface of the body at the place mentioned. Connected with the mouth is the canal which the oyster uses in conveying food to the stomach, from whence it passes into the curious little set of netted and twisted intestines referred to.—Santa Fe New Mexican.

Has the Wasp Affection?

A colony of wasps made a nest in the dark room of a studio last summer. At first the party who used the room did not relish their company, but for certain reasons he did not molest them. He paid no attention to the little buzzers, and they came and went at their own sweet will. After a time he began to study them and soon came to the conclusion that they were gradually becoming acquainted with him, his ways and his dark room. One day a stranger was seated on the window sill. The first wasp entering the room paid no attention to him, but made for the old crack in the wall. Then out came a big fat fellow who darted through the open window like a bullet. Within five minutes half a dozen wasps came with a rush at the stranger and two of them located him. But the writer has never been touched by his wasp colony.—Outing Magazine.

Raters, Sailabouts and Larks.

What is a rater, a sailabout, a lark, is a question commonly heard among those not familiar with yachts and technical racing terms. A rater is thirty-eight feet long and carries the double sails—sloop rig and jib. The half rater is thirty-two feet long, carries the same style sails as the rater and usually gets a five minute handicap in rater races. The sailabout carries a single large sail and is built on graceful lines, with rounded sides and ends, while the lark has square sides and ends and carries the single sail. Few larks are built now. Most of the yachts recently built have the double centerboard. The centerboard prevents drifting sidewise, and the single board is often entirely out of water during heavy winds; hence the use of the double board.

Ceylon Sharks.

Sharks infest the waters of Ceylon, and the pearl divers of that region are in deadly fear of these wolves of the deep. The divers are mostly Tamils and Moormen and display marvelous endurance and pluck. To protect themselves against the ever present danger to which the presence of the sharks exposes them the divers carry charms given them by recognized "shark binders" who receive a small government fee and a dozen oysters a day from each boat. Owing to the constant noise and splashing, the sharks are generally kept at a distance, and accidents are rare.

Famous King Og.

Og, the famous king of Bashan, mentioned in Deuteronomy, had a bedstead nine cubits long, or about sixteen and a half feet. It is doubtful whether Og himself was of the full length of his bedstead. Many bones of reputed giants have been found in different countries of the world, and uninformed people hastily concluded that the men to whom these bones were supposed to have belonged must have been from fifteen to thirty feet in height. All such remains have been proved to be those of the gigantic animals existing in a former era of the world's history.

The Study of Poetry.

Never before was there so much study of poetry and the drama. This is due to the modern extension of education and to the spread of reading matter among the masses. Poetry is not the fashion of an hour; it is an eternal need of the soul—a need that increases with the increase of intellectual light.—Edward Markham in Success Magazine.

Judicial Wit.

"Her Christian name is Handel," explained a witness at West Ham, "but she didn't like it and took up Annie instead."

is no worse than the terrible case of Piles that afflicted me 10 years. Then I was advised to apply Bucklen's Arnica salve, and less than a box permanently cured me, writes L. S. Napier, of Rugles, Ky. Heals all wounds, Burns and Sores like magic. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists.

Cleanliness, comfort and health renewed by the use of Cream Balm. Sold by all druggists for 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

JEWELRY.

Going Housekeeping?

If so, you can hardly get along without spoons, knives and forks. The silver-plated are without a doubt the most economical in the end. They wear longer, look better and cost very little more than the ordinary kinds. We can even supply silver-plated knives with steel blades.

Your sideboard is hardly complete without a silver set. Silver cake and fruit baskets should also be placed there.

A candelabra with will brighten the table considerably. After the spread has been cleared off a silver fern dish should be placed on the table.

The necessary things in cut-glass are the decanter, the berry bowl and the celery dish. In a great many homes the ice cream is served on cut glass plates.

On your dresser place a traveling alarm clock and a sterling silver or silver-plated toilet set, also a hat and clothes brush.

You will find plenty use of a number of small silver-plated trays. One has always so many trinkets to take care of.

There should be a jewel case on the dresser, if only for appearance sake. Over night it is a good place to keep the watch and Z—K Gold Chain.
